District Attorney Winslow Adopts New Tactics at Empire City-Sheriff's Men Take Three Other Prisoners-The

Two Dollar Tariff Proves a Success.

District Attorney Francis A. Winslow of Westchester county adopted entirely new tactics yesterday in his vigorous attempt to enforce the betting law at the Empire City racetrack. Upon evidence obtained by his ietectives at the track on Monday and Tues day he secured warrants from Justice Bell six alleged violators of the new statute. All these warrants were served at the track during yesterday's races, but because of se who were arrested on warrants were Stephen Sherman, William Klauber Leon Cohen and Fred Adler. They were charged by James Bennett, a detective ated to the District Attorney's office, violating section 351 of the Penal Code and were taken to the police station on Jerom avenue just outside of the track, where be was furnished. They will be arraigned this morning and will be held for Special Sessions, where they will be tried at an early date

Sheriff Lane's men also arrested Isidor trbaum, Arthur L. Kaplan and Hyman Wagner, who were charged with accepting and recording wagers. When Birbaum was taken into custody Deputy Sheriff Doyle took a bunch of newspaper clippings away from him. On these clippings, which were said to be "past performances" of the horses, there were numerous pencil marks. Birbaum was taken to the clubhouse, where District Attorney Winslow and Assistant District Attorney Weeks looked over the alleged evidence and then ordered the deputy sheriff to take his prisoner to Yonkers.

While some of the "memory brokers" were "paying off" before the races Sheriff Lane's men saw Roach Lewis and another man exchange money. They were arrested, but when it was explained that they were not making bets but were paying their debts they were released for lack of evidence.

In view of this fact it was said last night that warrants would be issued to-day for the arrest of some of the more noted speculators, against whom alleged evidence is said to have been secured

The boy got his first education as a rider while in the employ of J. S. Hawkins, who had a number of herses that were leased from Clarence H. Barney Schreiber was on hand to see Jack Atkin win in his colors. Mr. McGowan told him in a congratulatory speech that he was proud so many of the Celtic race came to the front at the Olympic games. It gratified him to see such names as Hayes. When the Oceanic was creeping up the bay this morning Hayes wrote out a state-ment to be given to the newspaper men, which was:

bay this morning Hayes wrote out a statement to be given to the newspaper men, which was:

"I am glad to get back home and proud to bring back the much sought for prize in the Marathon. I have had a delightful time in England, and especially in the old home of my father in Ireland, where they were as proud of my success as if it had been won by one of them. I have travelled through Ireland from Belfast to Cork and will never forget the treatment accorded to me."

In the pier it was pretty hard to get near Hayes, there was such whooning and handshaking. However, in hetween the congratulations he said a few things as follows:

"I have no kick coming. I don't think the English tried to lick me, but if they thought they could they would. Before the race we ghost of a show except that Morrissey might be close up. It was a cinch for the Englishmen was the way the dope went, and when there was none of them in it at the finish they felt sore. I did not know that Dorando was helped by the judges until after the race. He was disqualified; but I want it understood right here that I did not protest him."

"When the prize was presented to you you got a rather cool reception from the crowd."

"Yes, it was cretty lukewarm at first, but I got a bit of a sendoff from the royal box, and then everybody chapped after that. I have nothing to say against the English newspapers rubbed it into us pretty thick. When in Birmingham, which is English right through, they gave me a great time and other places too they treated me fine. I went to Ireland, and that's the place to go for a warm welcome. The $2 tariff has received a thorough test at the Yonkers track, and those who have looked over the situation declare that the reduction of the admission rate to that figure was a move in the right direction. It is a fact that the so-called undesirable element has been eliminated by the cutting out of the "dollar field," while the attendance, which has been surprisingly large, is of a better average quality than that seen at some of the other tracks in this State. As an indication of the business done at Yonkers under the present adverse conditions it may be said that on Monday, an off day with unfavorable weather, the gross receipts were $4,800, while the expenses were $5,100. Since then the receipts have exceeded the money pald out.

at Poughkeepsie. POUGHREEPSTE, Aug. 19.-Hamburg Belle won the $4,000 Oakland Baron Stake in the Grand Circuit races to-day. She took the measure of Spanish Queen for the first time. Hamburg Belle won three heats in 2:05%, 2:07 and 2:07. These are the fastest three heats ever trotted in a race on the Hudson River Driving Park track. In the first two heats Spanish Queen and Hamburg Belle raced from wire to wire, with the Belle consistently showing the way for Macey's mare. Carlokin proved a bad performer for these two heats, breaking each time he started on the first turn.

In the third heat Carlokin was sent out seriously to try conclusions with Hamburg Beile. The brown horse made a game effort. He got by Spanish Queen and dropped into second place behind the Belle on the backstretch and coming down the homestretch lane he was driven to a break without at any time threatening Hamburg Belle's lead. The latter won the deciding heat. The time of the first heat, 2:95%, equalled Hamburg Belle's record. record.

The surprise of the day's sport was the way Alceste, driven by Geers, quit in the 2:05 trot after she had two heats in. The three remaining heats were taken by Vandetta, who had no trouble in beating the Geers entry, in slow time. Major Brimo was an easy winner of the 2:09 pace.

BEATS TILEING A NECK IN STAKE RACE AT A MILE.

Fashion Plate, Wise Mason, Bad News, Robert Cooper and Don Enrique Capture the Other Races at Empire City Track-Three Favorites Successful.

Jack Atkin, a prohibitive favorite, won the Mount Vernon Handicap, at a mile, over the Empire City track yesterday afternoon, but it was only by a neck after he had received a bungling ride from Notter. Jack Atkin carried 132 pounds, and when the barrier went up Notter took him to the front. On lower turn, however, Notter permitted Wool Sandals, 10 to 1 to pass Jack Atkin. For nearly three-quarters of a mile Wool Sandals maintained the leadership by a short margin, while Jack Atkin was just in front of Tileing, 6 to 1, and Zienap, 8 to 1, On the far turn Notter began to make his run, and as Wool Sandals quit Jack Atkin loomed up in front. Coming into the home-stretch, however, Tileing became a factor, and as Butler put up a splendid ride it looked at the sixteenth pole as if Jack Atkin would then and under a hard drive Jack Atkin, with bulldog courage, managed to stick it out to the wire, where he beat Tileing by a neck in 140 4-5. Zienap was third, three lengths away. Jack Atkin gave twenty-eight pounds by the scale to Tileing and thirty-two to Zienap.

The Oneck Stable's Fashion Plate, 3 to 5, had to be driven hard to win the handicap for two-year-olds, six furlongs, by three parts of a length from Personal, 7 to 1, who took the place from Gliding Belle, 7 to 1 by four lengths. The time was 1:13. Bad News, quoted at 1 to 6, had no trouble in winning the second race, a selling event, at a mile and a quarter. Butler handled John E. McMillan, 10 to 1, so well that he nailed the place by a head from Lally, 6 to 1.

The Newcastle Stable's Vise Mason, 7 to 2, made all the running in the first race, for two-year-olds, six furlongs, and own cavily by three lengths in 1:12 2-5. P. J. Dwyer's Grania, 3 to 1, cinched the place with three lengths over Arondack, 10 to 1. Ragman, 11 to 5, had no excuses.

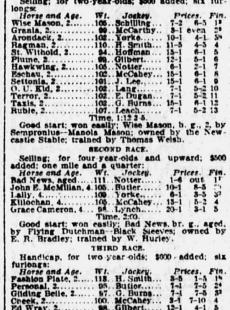

F. A. Forsythe & Robert Cooper, 5 to 1, took the track at the start in the fifth race, for three-year-olds, at a mile and a sixteenth, and was never headed. He finished with three lengths over Monoele, 9 to 5, with Cymbal, 8 to 1, three lengths back. The time was 1:47 to 5. John E. McMillan, 10 to 1, so well that he nailed Dai, 8 to 1, three inuguis back.

1:47 4-5.

Don Enrique, 18 to 5, went to the front in the last quarter and won the last race, at six furlongs, by a length and a balf in 1:13. Biskra, 15 to 1, squeazed into the place, a head before Goldproof, 2 to 1.

Three favorites at odds on and two second choices were successful. Notter rode two winners and a third. The attendance was close to 7,000 persons. The summaries PIRST RACE.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Aug. 19. - The New York Nationals opened their closing series on the Cincinnati grounds to day by playing scrappy ball and thereby gailoping away with a ten inning pitchers' battle. The Reds barely escaped a shutout at Tenney started off in the tenth with a single. Spade threw wild on Doyle's bunt and all were sate. Bresnahan touled out. Donlin then scored Tonney with a single to right, and Seymour's double to the same place scored Doyle. Ponlin also tried to score, but was out at the plate.

WE ARE NOT OPPOSED TO THE PURE FOOD LAW. THE PUBLIC WELL KNOW THAT. WE HAVE ALWAYS FOUGHT IMITATIONS AND

The only question between ourselves and the Department of Agriculture is as to whether our label should be qualified in any way, and it has been decided to leave it for the United States Courts to decide. The establishment of the test case has necessitated a few seizures, the importance of which our enemies have endeavored to exaggerate, in the hope that the popularity of our brand in New York and the country generally might be undermined to their advantage.

NEW YORK (A. L.), 8; DETROIT, 0. The game played by the New York Ameritail end kind as cheese from chalk. Whatever influence was brought to bear on the Highlanders overnight, they were a fast and flossy lot yesterday, made the Detroit champions look slow, smothered them under eight runs and shut them out. The right side of the New York infield presented a new alignment. Laporte was at second base, where he played a fine game, and Moriarty was at first instead of Chase, who had had an ulcerated tooth yanked out and wasn't feeling any too fit. Moriarty was the sensation of the battle. He hit the ball so hard he loosened the seams, fielded like a wizard and slole bases voraciously. In the seventh inning he made a clean steal of home, beating the pitch fairly and squarely and with the ball handled cleanly by the catcher.

Schmidt, however, caught a ragged game for the champions and couldn't stop New York's base running at all. Both sides batted freely, but the New Yorks made their hits count, while the Detroit bingles were scattered among outs and there was no finality to their hitting to send runners home. The Tigers made a hit or two in every inning, but the New York fielding was sure and Chesbro's careful application of curves to the batter facing him never failed to compel an out at critical times. Twelve Detroiters were left on bases. The New Yorks hit safely in everyinning but one, and they bunched three safeties in one inning and four in another.

The Detroits weren't as resourceful as usual, and it is seldom that they made eleven hits and no runs. The eleven and none combination, however, was coincident with some virgilant and sharp playing on the other side, and it was New York's good game rather than Detroit's relapse that cut the most ice. Manager kid Eiberfeld saw only part of the best playing his team has done in weeks. The kid dug up a kick in the fourth ining and allowed it to ferment until he was ordered off the field by O'Loughlin. He made a stubborn retreat, gatopping en route to linger in fence corners and keeping O'Loughlin's semaphoric arm busy signalling to him to move on and allow the game to proceed bro doubled, McIlveen singled and three runs dented the plate.

Chesbro seemed to be in distress in the ninth inning and to be pitching with an effort. The first two butters were retirred speedily, but Mullih tripled to right centre. McIntvre and Schaefer reached first on four balls, the only ones Chesbro gave. Crawford and Cobb had gone to the clubhouse, but wireless mesaiges from Jennings brought them back on the run. Cobb might as well have stayed away, for Chesbro made Crawford hit the ball. Ball stopped the hit, and though he could have had Schaefer easily at second on a force he chose the longer route and threw the batter out at first. The score:
